Azet says

Jayne Ann Krentz yet again proves how far she can go in her romantic imaginations. She delivers a different romance in "The Silver Snare", where the heroine Jessica Travers are the highly rich businesswoman-satisfied with her independence and strong attitude. The hero is a common man, a unique kind of Alpha that are ready to travel up to the other end of the world to claim his heroine!

They meet for the first time when the plane they are in crash, and gets stranded on a island. Their wills clashing, a sexual desire also threatens between them which they soon also succumb to- and when they get to civilisation Jessica will do everything to run away from him, and he relentlessly follows after her , determined to prove that she belongs to him forever.

Yeah i just LOVE this book...

Jessica were easily as determined to never again surrender to Lucas, and her stubbornness made me infuriated while i also somehow admired her for it. Lucas had his heart on his sleeve since the time they got to know each other in the island. She is a very cold businesswoman (in the way tycoon heroes usually are) but also had this very vulnerable and secret longing for a true home and a family ever since she gets to know Lucas. With excitement i took in every ounce of relentless pursuit Lucas had for her- and longed for her to realize that she loves him.

Lucas Kincaid is one of a HELL sexy hero. He is a predator in pursuit of his heroine who he calls his (so cute) and i loved it the way he got jealous of every man that got near her. And he is a ....petshop owner! Thats soooooo freaking adorable! He could be such a softy sometimes and i just wanted to hug him and never let go! He was a slave to his love for her, and oh he was such a smitten hero. He could be both vulnerable and aggressive that i was like OH YEAH BABY! But trust me in one thing, this man is everything but a beta hero. He was a Alpha caveman that had realized his everlasting love for Jessica much earlier than she did. And the sex-scenes were OH MY GOD so burning steamy that my eyes got burned! Lucas and Jessica are hot in bed together, and out of it...and simply right for each other.

Their HEA were a delightful surprise, and i find this book one of my biggest favourites by Jayne Ann Krentz aka Stephanie James. A Keeper for everyone who loves Romance!

I really enjoyed this book. Her characters are always different than expected. I enjoyed all of her 80's books and took them for the era they were in and what was selling.

This early Jayne Ann Krentz (1983) was a bit confusing. It started in the desert in California after a plane crash and moved on to a luxurious cruise to Mexico. Confronting the primitive and then the civilized in each other, Jessica Travers and Lucas Kincaid work their way through an initially lopsided relationship, first favoring Lucas and then favoring Jessica. I'm not sure this worked for me, but I still read it every other year.

Another book that for the life of me I can't see why I liked or kept it. Lack of options maybe? I do seem to recall having read it repeatedly.

Another old school JAK that I've somehow never read before. I kind of want to re-title it The Silver Snare... of Patriarchy. (aka, a retelling of The Taming of the Shrew.)

Most of the book was the heroine's internal struggle to figure out what she wanted vs what she thought she was supposed to want (2nd wave feminism) vs what the hero told her she wanted (patriarchy). But, her thinking was such a muddled mess that the hero's Holy Stalker, Batman tendencies were actually somewhat sympathetic. (This book came out around the same time as bell hook's Feminist Theory, which I kept wanting to hand the heroine and tell her to read -- you can want a family and a career and enjoy sex, really it's ok).

Overall, the heroine was really funny sometimes and I love that the hero owns a pet store, but I'm not sure if I'll ever bother reading this one again.

Loved it !! There's so much going on in this book and not a single dull moment.

Jessica was one tiring heroine , I had a huge urge to hunt her down and slap her with a Big Fat Ass Smelly Fish , one of the most stubborn and condescending heroines I've ever seen but she got what she deserved , she thought she was so clever and cool until Lucas turned everything around and had her running around in circles , serves her right , I enjoyed her character too much especially when she was being driven crazy. My favorite thing in this book was the hero , I l.o.v.e.d Lucas , he had me grinding my teeth in annoyance then had me laughing out loud , he is outrageous , sweet , an animal lover and a cocky bastard but in a very charming way. The relationship between Jessica and Lucas was like Tom and Jerry , it was so much fun. A very enjoyable read.

Beta hero? No, he's an alpha hero? No, he's just an annoying hero.
Cop turned pet shop owner who is too squeamish to feed the snakes.

Stalkerific

Heroine

Bratty

Women's lib overkill (It was written in '83).

Disliked her for 95% of the book.

Totally unsympathetic character.
