A Baumgartner Christmas Selena Kitt

In spite of a brief experimentation early in their relationship, Doc and Carrie Baumgartner have since maintained a monogamous marriage without too much difficulty or even temptation--until now.

A move far from home, coupled with new friends and long hours away from each other, have left the young Baumgartner couple on shaky ground.

Doc believes bringing in someone "new," like they did early in their relationship, might add just the spice their marriage needs, but Carrie isn't so sure about that plan.

Doc has a surprise Christmas present for his wife anyway--but in an ironic twist, he discovers she has one for him, too.

Each gift allows the Baumgartners to rediscover, in the true spirit of Christmas, an expansive love that includes not only their feelings for one another, but the ability to share their passion.

~ Lei ~ Reading Is An Adventure ~ says

The only thing that could have made this quickie better was some Wilson and Doc action, alas, plenty of ff action though.

Another Baumgartner tale from early in Doc and Carrie's marriage while Doc is still in his residency program and Carrie is at loose ends. She's attracted to her friend Daphne but is a little gunshy after her foray in ff sex with her college roommate, Maureen that didn't end so well.

Tattooed Wilson, who is a fellow resident gets thrown in the mix via Doc's invitation and ends up in a ménage à quatre (no mm action). Just a nice little Christmas tale.

4.5 Stars!

This was an awesomely hot read. I love Carrie and Doc, so it was nice visiting with them again. This story takes place between Meet The Baumgartners and The Baumgartners Plus One.

Carrie and Doc have been monogamous since their marriage and their failed menage with her old roommate turned born-again Christian, Maureen. But Doc brings up the possibility of getting busy with Carrie's new best friend, Daphne. Carrie thinks she's not enough but she can't deny that she has an attraction toward Daphne herself. It then goes into Carrie and Doc eventually opening up their relationship and becoming the polyamorous couple we know and love.

I liked how this dealt with the feelings and sometimes the insecurities that people in relationships can go through when deciding to open up their relationships. Of course it was super-smokin, with lots of M/F, a good bit of F/F, and if you can believe Carrie finally got some M/F/M action! That was a nice surprise.

Anyway, I love the Baumgartners, and I loved this. I look forward to more of their adventures.

So I wasn't sure how I felt about this one at first. At first, I was thinking Doc was being sort of selfish by suggesting to Carrie that if she wants to, she should go ahead and have sex with another woman. I mean, he'd get benefit out of it too, right? And Carrie IS bisexual. But it seemed like he was suggesting too "loudly", which I think is how Carrie was feeling, too. Did he want Carrie to engage other women SO THAT he'd have someone new to screw around with, too? And I thought it was a little skewed that he had no trouble with her going after Daphne, but a little trouble with her being aroused by his friend Wilson.

But then once he brought Wilson for Christmas in the Keys as a sort of present for Carrie, I realized he just wants her happy and wants to give her as much pleasure as she can stand. And the fact that she brought Daphne for him... I guess they're just very "giving" people? I imagine you have to be incredibly secure in your relationship with your significant other to give him/her someone to screw. And despite initial appearances, it seems that Carrie and Doc are completely secure in their love for each other. Like they can separate the pleasure with someone else for what it is... temporary pleasure. But they'll always have each other.

And of course this was hot... it's Selena Kitt!

After their brief experience inviting someone into their bed, Doc is certain that it's exactly what Carrie is craving. Carrie struggles with understanding her love of Doc and her growing attraction to her friend.

But with Christmas around the corner, the Baumgartners are all about giving, but Carrie never expected the surprise that Doc had in store for her.

*Features m/f, f/f, f/m/f and f/f/m/m scenes - Panties will be soaked.

Doc & Carrie are still super hot for a married couple. I liked this exploration into them beginning to open up their relationship - prompted by Doc but ultimately led by Carrie. How nice to have such conveniently hot and available friends like Daphne & Wilson to help kick things off! Ha. A highlight: never expected to feel so aroused by a scene revolving around a temporary tattoo. Creative in the best way. I did roll my eyes a bit at the extra sweet HEA for everyone at the end, but okay. I hope in future books there's more conflict around the sexual escapades.

Wow!!! The "hotness" continuesA Baumgartner Christmas, the 4th book I read in the B's series has changed my idea of Xmas forever!!!! And the HOT & FAB COVER!!!!

Doc (please can't I call him Stephen???) and Carrie are still the most exciting, scandalous, sexy and hot couple around.....and I just loooooooove finding out more about their very unusual!!! And interesting!!!! Life...at least their sex life.....there's not much else one wants to know about the "normal" everyday chores!!!!!!!

Doc & Carrie deciding to be monogamous!!!!!!! That is a stretch.....is that ever possible????? You right....NOT FOR LONG.....and soon rather than later, they get back to bring some new and exciting fun into their lives!!!!

Did I like Daphne & Wilson??? I can't make up my mindjust thinking about a tattoo on a man's penis took some serious imagination!!!!!!! I preferred Dani from the Plus One book...found her more interesting and sexier and engaged more with her than Carrie's NEW girlfriend.

So, the most exciting present that Carrie & Doc give each other for Xmas is ...HOT & EXCITING of course!!!!

The sex...lots and lots of it as it is expected, is sizzling and smoking HOT. One question I asked myself....why not Doc & Wilson doing each other and with Carrie & Daphne. Could have been interesting to see another dynamic in the B's relationship....after all, if Carrie can be bi, why not Doc???

Where to next Carrie & Doc?

Marilicious says

I spent a pleasurable morning catching up with the Baumgartners. I do love Carrie and Doc's open relationship. They love each other fiercely but are willing to share that love and open their hearts to others.

Spoiler Ahead This was a short quick Christmas read from a very kinky author. Doc and Carrie Baumgartner love to experiment in their sex life with other women. A move far from home, coupled with new friends and long hours away from each other, have left the young Baumgartner couple on shaky ground. Doc believes bringing in someone "new," like they did early in their relationship, might add just the spice their marriage needs, but Carrie isn't so sure about that plan. This was a really hot book with a lot of hot sex f/f/m, but the book was light on story. Danielle who is their new neighbor is bisexual like Carrie they have some afternoon fun. This book was well written with no errors in spelling or grammar. I am looking forward to reading more books in this series.

Megan ~The Never Ending Book Basket says

This was another filling, heated, and steamy read by Selena Kitt. I've enjoyed getting to know these characters and seeing whether story takes them and this petition was just as over-the-top in the best possible way. If you're looking for a story that is well-written, enjoyable, and definitely pushes the boundaries of it, then this is a great book for you!

I couldn't put it down, and I definitely look forward to reading more of the series soon!

Pretty hot. Not my favorite but it gets the job done. ;)

4.5 stars! This latest installment would be chronologically just after Meet the Baumgartner ???s. A Baumgartner Christmas could be read as a stand alone, however I personally feel you would enjoy the story more if you read Meet the Baumgartner???s first. Mainly, because knowing the characters prior to this story helps the reader to understand the dynamics of their relationship.

This book explains how Carrie and Doc decide that bringing other people into the marriage and into their bedroom is the right thing for them as a couple. Selena does an excellent job of portraying the guilt that Carrie feels for being attracted to other people, and the worry she has that Doc wants to include another woman because she's not enough for him. As always, the sex scenes are fantastic. I can always count on Selena for a great read, and this is no exception.

Leisha says

I read this a while ago and I remember it being fairly enjoyable but that's it - not very rememberable. It is definitively worth reading in order to get the full picture of the Baumgartners but by far not my favourite.

Angie (Mind Malfunction) says

A Baumgartner Christmas is a erotic story in the Baumgartner series by Selena Kitt. In this story, we learn how Carrie and Doc started adding others into their relationship. I love this series, mainly because of Doc. Wow, he's incredibly HOT.
