A Midwestern family is traveling down the road of their lives, completely unaware of what waits beyond the bend. They are living the American dream, creating deep bonds and a treasure house of memories to last a lifetime. Suddenly, tragedy enters their world like a tornado. What do we do when we are forced to question everything we hold to be true? In the face of adversity, we discover what we are really made of, inside. You will recognize in these pages that part of yourself capable of surviving, recovering, and triumphing in the face of great loss and trauma. And, you will come away deeply inspired by the power of the human spirit and the enduring nature of family ties. "As a grief educator, I read many books on grief and loss. Final Drive is not like any other book I have read. It is compelling, fascinating, heartfelt, and inspirational. I could not stop reading. Shelly captures the true experience of loss, grief, hope, resilience, and love. I highly recommend this book." Lisa Athan, MA, Executive Director of Grief Speaks "Final Drive tells of unspeakable grief and loss in a way that inspires its readers to keep on keepin' on. It is a must-read for parents who find themselves in the heart wrenching situation of helping their children deal with tragedy." Dr. Beth Erickson, Author of Longing for Dad: Father Loss and Its Impact, and Host of Relationships 101 on www.webtalkradio.net "Final Drive is a book with conviction and intensity. In its pages, the author learns to embrace the promise of tomorrow. As readers follow her blueprint for life, we are reminded to remember the tender songs of life over the crippling fear of loss." Sherry Russell, Board Certified Expert in Traumatic Stress, Author of Conquering the Mysteries and Lies of Grief

Debra Laninga hodgett says

Final Drive gave me insight to the dynamics of personal tragedy even before the death of a loved one. As a hospice volunteer, this book was a helpful look into a family's life. Very real.
