Zivan Luna Hunter

Mia's new partner? An arrogant, cocky, seven-feet-tall alien warrior.

Mia Frost prides herself on her work ethic. There's not a single detective in the entire New Atlanta Police Department who works harder than the curvy redhead. Ever since her little sister disappeared without a trace, she's poured every waking minute into her job.

When a young girl with a striking resemblance to her lost sister disappears on an alien space station, Mia is called upon to bring her back home. She'll do anything to save this girl's life. Even if it means working alongside the most arrogant, cockiest Zoran she has ever met.

Zivan is an impossibly tall, broad-shouldered Zoran warrior who upholds the law on the Observer. The growly alien is instantly attracted to the human detective, but to his bewilderment she resists his every advance. This doesn't deter the muscular cop in the slightest — he'll do anything to make Mia his.

When they find a lead on the missing girl, they soon realize that this goes way deeper than they could have guessed. When they're forced to run for their lives, they only have each other to rely on...

Mia Frost is a dedicated police officer with the New Atlanta Police Department. Her direct superior Captain Logan has just given her a new case to handle and for that she has to go off planet something she has never done before. A missing girl who looks amazing similar to her younger sister who went missing years ago with no trace. So Mia is determined to find Emily and bring her back to her family and to do that she has to take flight to The Observer a space station home to millions of alien races to see an arrogant Zoran by the name of Zivan who was not at all helpful when she contacted his department to find out the last whereabouts of Emily. When they met Mia slaps him something most people do not do to Zorans who are 7 feet tall and packing a lot of muscle. Zivan is instantly attracted and wants to spend more time with Mia getting to know her, so he invites her back to his place. Mia is having trouble fighting her attraction to this big alien. She is here to do a job nothing else, but it appears the investigation she has been sent on is going to turn deadly and she will need Zivan to help keep her safe and find Emily. Thank you to Luna Hunter for the entertaining read. Loved it.

Book #6 of the Zoran Warriors is phenomenal but the best part is this series could go on forever. Definitely recommend this Must Read Book.

Detective Mia Frost of the New Atlanta Police Department, only has her job to do, nothing else she had no one at home she was really lonely but she had her job. She was told she had to take a working vacation she didn't want a vacation and definitely did want to look for a missing young adult her parents knew she was missing but didn't want to publicize it. She is going into space, now that was scary, once there she meets a big purple hunk.

Zivan was a Zoran Forces Officer but now he's an Observer Deputy all because he did agree to what my crooked captain. He turned him in and weeks later transferred into a purple desk jockey. Life sucks than this little spit fire entered his world and life seemed to have meaning.

A copy of this book was provided to me with no requirements for a review. I voluntarily read this book and my comments here are my honest opinion.

Gale says

I enjoy the Galactic Mates series but something about Zivan captivated me right from the start. Mia Frost is a human detective and Zivan is a Zoran Officer, doing duty on a space station. The story moves fast, it is at times hilarious, at least to me, and Mia and Zivan have an instant connection. I won't recap the story because these two have a wild ride. Their "mission": to find a missing young earth woman. What they encounter, along the way, is their story. I liked both of these characters – although Zivan is a merciless tease and sometimes could only shake my head at him. But he was fun, and purple (!), so all was forgiven. I recommend this book – it is a quick and fun read.

Mia had me laughing out loud

This story may have the funniest scenes so far!! Zuran is both honest and straightforward, and faced with a wide cracking human detective, they get into some interesting conversations.
