~~

Hesperia Culturas del Mediterráneo is an innovative publishing product in magazine format whose objective is spreading topics such as current affairs, debates and culture, focusing especially on the relations between, among others, Islamic and Western European societies. Hesperia offers a new reflection and analysis space in order to achieve a wide and universal horizon where experiences, articles and texts from different origins can be exchanged. Even though Hesperia's purpose is, essentially, informative, it preserves the academic nature and scientific rigor inherent to knowledge, thought channels and the latest researches.
