Aidan's life with his grandfather in Devil's Ridge worsens. Though his mother puts on a brave face for the sake of her children, she and Aidan are both aware of Grandfather Patrick's intimate connection with a dark force -- one that the whole town seems to worship.

Aidan's new Sidhe acquaintance, Asher Vane, is a compelling figure, but meeting Asher only ignites his grandfather's fury... and worse. Unable to escape the old man's attention and not even able to leave the house, how will Aidan protect his family?

And can he even trust Asher, who wants to take him away from everything Aidan's ever loved?

Darlene says

Love this series.

Myka says

Than manga part was good. 3 stars. But the short story that followed was just a pwp that had me rolling my eyes every other word. 1 star for that. 2 star average.

Dena says

Good plot and description

Sadly I just wish the sex scenes were drawn out. But I understand that it isn't allowed. But the written out version paints a good picture so it was still very good to read and use my imagination.

Ericka Leonard says

Too short!!!

Christina says

This was really great. I absolutely loved it.

LWM says

I didn't like this at all - prefer words to deciphering comics. Half a star.

Kim Mohamad says

ok

Rebecca says

I find this series intriguing, but it's frustrating that each volume is so short. This one does include a short story where the two MC's hook up in a dream, though.

Alan D.D. says

Interesante, entretenido, buena dosis de misterio y una historia que atrapa, aunque el cambio de manga a trama escrita es algo chocante en cierto punto.

Interesting, entertaining, good dose of mystery and a gripping story, although the change of manga to a written plot is somewhat shocking to some extent.

hooray! my first review of 2019! i am uber excited!

X. Aratare (AKA Rayth Reign) is one of my favorite urban fantasy/paranormal romance writers. :D i loved her "Merman" series, "the fall", and "birth Rite" are all amazing. especially the audio versions.
i am totally in love with the narrator for "the merman" so of course, i had to get a subscription to her website where she posts her writing so i could keep reading her work.

and her manga "the dark earth" is absolutely stunning. the art is some of the most beautiful i have ever seen. it rivals that of "black butler" and "pandora hearts" that's how good it is. :D and if you guys know how much i adore "black butler" than you'll understand just how wonderful a compliment that is. XD the character designs for our two main guys, Adin and Asher, are just beyond amazing.

and the story is great to. it's so interesting!

feuding town. weird fairy people and crazy cult members. a creepy monster in the well. a prevy grandfather. and some amazing chemistry between our main character, Adin and a the mysterious man named Asher.

the story is unfolding at a decent pace and every little thing that happened here seemed important to the story. no dumb filler, like you see in so many manga series. i like how focused "the dark earth" seems.

I'm really looking forward to reading the rest of the manga (and the novels) and learning more about these characters and the world of Devil's Ridge.

recommended for lovers of gay romance, manga, urban fantasy, and paranormal romance.

★★★★ = I thoroughly enjoyed it. I would re-read every now and then.

RATING NOTE: I will rate all the books the same as I consider it one long story.

I have not read the online novel. I strictly started the graphic novel edition. It's been an excruciatingly slow wait for each comic. I started following this way back in 2011 and I know the online novel goes waaaay beyond the comic but a part of me wants to wait for the graphic novel releases, even though slow.

I love this series to pieces, mainly for the art. The art alone is worth my fandom and I found the story a bonus in the end (as I'm not normally a follower of medieval-themed fantasies).

Thanks Raythe Reign for continuing this!
