Manaconda (Trek Mi Q'an #6) Sherri L. King , Lora Leigh , Jaid Black

Sacred Eden - Sherri L. King: Cady and Obsidian, two greatly revered Shikar Warriors, know they share a love like no other. A love that will last forever. A love not even Death could interrupt. And now it's time to put that love to the ultimate test. for Death is on its way.

Knight Stalker - Lora Leigh: A centuries old vampire, or is he? Bliss St. Clair comes upon the man of her dreams as his lethally sharp teeth are biting into another woman's neck. He's a vampire. But this one can walk in the daylight, a cross doesn't harm him, he's not dark and brooding, merciless or tortured. He's a charming bad boy with a rakish sense of humor and a wicked smile that heats every nerve ending in her body. And he wants her. Not for the blood that runs in her veins, not for the essence of her soul which makes her a perfect candidate to enter his world, he wants her because the passion she arouses in him sets his heart and his soul on fire. Now, Cadan Gaelan must protect the woman his heart has chosen, from the menace of the world he lives in. The Dark Knights who would tear her from him and use her from their own evil plans. Unless he can convince her to accept him and the secret of his vampirism.

Devilish Dot - Jaid Black: Dorothy "Dot" Araiza is a sex-toy maker by trade. One would think she has an active social life, but on the contrary, her existence is a rather boring, staid one. Dot dreams of finding her happily-ever-after, of being swept off her feet by Prince Charming - not to mention getting laid after eight pathetic years. A lightning storm later, all Dot's fevered fantasies will come true. But Prince Charming isn't quite what she'd been expecting.

Carolyn F. says

This cover is probably my top 5 of worst cover. In fact, it's one of the worst titles I've ever seen. I couldn't resist! Average is 3 stars. Worth buying (and hiding) for the 2nd and 3rd stories.

1. Sacred Eden by Sherri L. King. This story was pretty awful. I could care less about the characters who were so full of themselves, I was getting a little sick to my stomach. **

2. Knight Stalker by Lora Leigh. This story was pretty good. Bliss catches Caden feeding off someone and thinks he's a vampire. Actually he a symbiotic host, looking for somewhere to off load an extra passenger. The sex scenes were pretty hot. ***

3. Devilish Dot by Jaid Black. This was my favorite. I loved Dot who was pretty funny. The sex scenes were very imaginative. ****

Netanella says

What a horrible cover! A man? a fish? A Man-fish-snake? A new series on SyFy?

Sacred Eden by Sheri L. King - 3 stars

Part of the Horde Wars series, this story is difficult to read if you haven't recently read the first three books of the series.

Knight Stalker by Lora Leigh - 3 stars

Probably my least favorite of the three. I didn't feel the love for psychic connections with symbiots.

Devilish Dot by Jaid Black - 3 1/2 stars

Part of the Trek Mi Q'an universe, but it's not necessary to have read any of the books prior. This one is chock full of typical Jaid Black humor, and if you don't get campy sex scenes, then it's not for you. I enjoyed it.

Debi Sullivan says

All good tales.

Lyndi W. says

I'm giving 4 stars to Lora Leigh's story, "Knight Stalker". As for the other stories...

Sacred Eden by Sherri L. King

This is part of the Horde Wars series and none of it will make a lick of sense unless you've read the previous books. Since I haven't read them, reading this short story was a waste of time. I can't say anything about it other than it doesn't make sense without the backstory.

Devilish Dot by Jaid Black

I'm refusing to read this one. I read the first book in this Trek Mi Q'an series and wasn't much of a fan. So again, no rating or review.

Knight Stalker by Lora Leigh

Fuck yeah. That was an awesome little story. It gave me just enough backstory and character development that I was invested pretty quickly. I thought the story was intriguing and I would have enjoyed a full-length story book. The symbiots were really neat and Caden's devotion to them was heartwarming. You felt the love he had for them. Bliss was hilariously witty and reminded me of Gini Koch's Kitty character. The story was fast, but it felt well-rounded. I'm going to look to see if Lora Leigh has written anything else in this world, because the symbiots and their history with Caden, the future that Bliss and Caden have together with Cerise and Aldon... all of it, I definitely want more.

Edit: I feel like I should mention that Caden and Bliss have sex on top of some dude in this story. It was... weird.

And boom goes the dynamite.

Meadow says

I put my time in because I wanted the right to say "I read Manaconda!". And I feel that my time was well spent because I can now bring this up in any social situation with confidence. I don't really know what to say about the stories... The first was, apparently, the 4th in a series. No wonder I felt as though I didn't know what was going on. The second was pretty good and the third had some amazing lines! "'Twas like a kick in the man sack" (Awesome!)

From www.booksfree.com, my book rental site - don't have this one to share

Erotic Paranormal Romance Anthol.

Sherri L. King - "Sacred Eden"

Set in her "Shikar" (Horde?) series world. Very exciting, well written, makes me want to reorder my Sherri L. King wish list and move the Shikar series to the top! The few SLK stories I've read, particularly her "Moon Lust" series tale in the anthol. Primal Heat, have put her up there with J.R. Ward as far as my book excitement meter (need coffee, I know, bad grammar ...).

Lora Leigh - Knight Stalker

Who knew LL wrote a vampire story?! With a bit of a twist. LL is always fun to read.

Jaid Black - Devilish Dot

Unique light story.

Kathy Davie says

Don't. Don't go here. Don't read this book. My only excuse is my obsession for reading everything an author has produced...

King's "Sacred Eden" was okay. Hokey. Over the top. But okay. An interesting story concept.

Lora Leigh's "Knight Stalker" was also over the top albeit also with an interesting story concept. If she could tone down the panting, melodramatic exaggeration it would be good.

Jaid Black. What can I say. The woman can't write and "Devilish Dot" was just embarrassing to read. I sure hope Black uses a pseudonym.

Dawn ♥ romance says

I only read Jaid Black's erotic paranormal story in this anthology and found it very enjoyable especially with all the humor. Sex toy maker Dot is caught in a lightening storm landing in another world where eventually her dreams come true.

Manaconda

Sacred Eden by Sherri L. King

Part of her Horde Wars series which I have not read. Even jumping in at the obvious middle of a series I found the characters likable.

I was intrigued enough by the storyline that I may be checking out the other books.

Small quibble: Cady is a Latina character and I'm always baffled when author's have them cry out "Madre Mia!" or some variation of it when they climax. Is it just to remind us of their ethnicity? I find it a bit cliched but it didn't ruin the story for me.

Knight Stalker by Lora Leigh

Started out great with a super hot hero vampire. The lore was intriguing. She really knows how to write erotic romance.

I liked Bliss (the heroine) at first but she became a bit uneven.

Still, a good short read.

Devilish Dot by Jaid Black

Part of her Trek Mi Q'An series

I like Jaid Black though this is only the 2nd of her Trek Mi Q'An stories I've read. For a quick read she did a great job of creating a hilarious character (Dot). I love her sense of humor. She's good with the sexy stuff too.

Marta Cox says

This is a collection of three stories by Jaid Black, Lora Leigh and Sheri L King (a new Author to me) . These are short erotic stories that each give a very good idea of the talent and creativity of the three authors.

First up is a story by Sheri L King which an introduction of sorts to her Horde War series. As I hadn't read any of her work I did find this a little confusing but it has certainly encouraged me to seek out more of her work.

The second story is by Lora Leigh and is called Night Stalker and from the first sentence the reader is thrown into a very sexy Vampire/symbiot tale which hopefully will be rounded out into a series.

The third tale is by Jaid Black (Devilish Dot) and is set in her Trek Mi K'an world. I absolutely loved this! Dot manufactures sex toys and suddenly finds herself transported to a world of very sexy aliens. Gargoyle shifter anyone?! For me the most complete and satisfying of the three offerings here.

This book is truly worth the money and all three authors have done a fantastic job. I have no hesitation in heartily recommending this and would give it 5 stars!

Cindy says

Good read - multi-author anthology. The stories are excellent [yes, all of them - a miracle!] The Sherri L King story [Sacred Eden:] is in the Horde Wars series, the Jaid Black [Devilish Dot:] is a Trek Mi Q'an story, and the Lora Leigh [Knight Stalker:] is [currently at least:] a stand-alone vampire story. That said, could there be a more awful title/cover? Probably. But it wouldn't be easy. Trust me, no snakes appear in any of the stories...

So - good book, awful cover, worth reading but you may need a plain, brown wrapper...

S.a. Moore says

When I first saw "Manaconda" I understandably erupted in laughter. It was such an outlandish and brazen title, I felt obligated to read it. After reading the book, I found myself turning down the thermostat in my house. Sherri L. King not only creates a lavish world of daemons and otherworldly beings, the sex scenes are definitely in the "Sahara" heat range. Kudos on a hook that not only compels a person to read it, but having a story good enough to keep the reader spellbound and entertained

Jane Stewart says

If you want crazy laughter with erotic sex, get this book for Jaid Black's story.

This book consists of the following three stories.

5 stars for DEVILISH DOT by Jaid Black.

Story Brief:

Dorothy (Dot) invents and sells sex toys. While driving one night in California a storm tosses her car into something which transports her to the planet Khan-Gor. Men with tails capture her. She thinks they plan to eat her like sushi. Vaidd is a gargoyle-human shifter who senses Dot's presence from miles away. He knows that she is his one true bloodmate. He flies to get to her.

Reviewer's Opinion:

This is wild, creative, different, and unexpected. I'm amazed that I'm laughing so frequently within an erotic sex story. Dot's assumptions, thoughts, and comments are hilarious. I love her attitude. The gargoyle creatures speak in a campy older style which just sounds funny. For example: "Do something to distract thyself. Verily, you are driving the pack daft with the pacing." After reading this story, I thought the following. I feel like I have a rational, disciplined, boring mind, but when I read Jaid Black, she causes these fanciful, explosions of craziness in my head!

Data:

Story length: 60 pages. Swearing language: strong. Sexual language: strong/erotic. Number of sex scenes: 6. Estimated number of sex scene pages: 10. Setting: present day rural California and the planet Khan-Gor. Copyright: 2004. Genre: erotic paranormal romance.

4 stars for KNIGHT STALKER by Lora Leigh.

Good story for wild, erotic sex, but incomplete. This short story is like the first few chapters of a book that is not finished. The author talks about battles between evil and good vampires. The evil ones want to take Bliss as a breeder. Caden takes her first to be his mate and the process makes her stronger to be able to better resist the evil ones. This is the story of Bliss and Caden first getting together, having sex and turning her into a vampire. This part of the story was complete.

The vampires in this story are different from typical vampires. Here, there are alien symbiots who inhabit humans. The aliens need the blood and give special powers to the human hosts in return. The human hosts can communicate with the symbiots inside them.

Data:

Sexual language: strong/erotic. Number of sex scenes: four, several pages long. Setting: 2007 unsure of location, somewhere on earth. Copyright: 2004. Genre: erotic paranormal romance.

Other Books:

For a list of my reviews of other Lora Leigh books, see my review of "Tempting the Beast."

3 stars for SACRED EDEN by Sherri L. King.

Fun story, but way too many unanswered questions. CAUTION SPOILERS: The history of the 200 year war could have been explained a little better. Why are the new Daemon creatures so different from the prior ones and how will this affect the war? Who were the two spirit-type men who came and healed and helped Cady and Sid after their attack? Who is Grimm and what makes him different from the others? Why did he not want anyone to tell about the two spirit-types? This has the makings for a good story. But, it was too short and incomplete. Story brief: The Shikars live underground earth and fight Daemon creatures who live above ground. Shikars have longer life spans and more powers than humans. A Shikar couple goes above ground to get some supplies and is attacked.

Data:

Sexual language: strong. Number of sex scenes: three. Setting: in the future near the town of Gainesville in U.S. Copyright: 2004. Genre: erotic paranormal romance.
