Steven says

This was a pretty fun title that seemed to be aimed at the younger audience. Kids are going to have a lot of fun with this series. The only thing that I felt it needed was more action.

Got this at Halloween ComicFest 2013 at Kingdom Comics.

Was pretty cute.

Kept my attention.

Love how Agent Coulson is the principal of Peter's school.

Think the list of characters in the front is great.

This was a fun, quick graphic novel to read and I've already ordered another two! There were a few grammar and spelling mistakes, but hey, most graphic novels have a few of them in! I would definitely recommend it to a friend or even someone a little younger than me. A pleasant and enjoyable read.

I actually read Spider-man Comics Magazine #1 which is a compilation of Amazing Spider-man #51-53. The stories were pretty good even though the banter of the teenagers was a bit over the top.

Second time was actually Spider-man Comics Magazine #5 which is a compilation of Amazing Spider-man #65-67.

Third time was actually Spider-man Comics Magazine #6 which is a compilation of Amazing Spider-man #68-70.

Fourth time was actually Spider-man Comics Magazine #7 which is a compilation of Amazing Spider-man #71-73.

Fifth time was actually Spider-man Comics Magazine #8 which is a compilation of Amazing Spider-man #74-76.
