Freestyle with Avery Annie Bryant

Go West, young girl.

Avery's off to see "the Snurfman" (aka her dad) in Colorado. She can't wait to show off her skills in the first annual Telluride Snurfer Snowboarding Competition. But the Snurfman's got a few surprises in store. And when Avery meets Kazie, the thirteen year-old all-star boarder and her evil cat, Farkle, she's not so sure these surprises are so snurf-tastic after all. At least there's Jason--a way cool kid with a secret--a secret almost ready to be released into the wild.

Fun and interesting but a little sappy. Considering Avery's crazy, sports-loving character, you'd think the book centered in her point of view would be chock-full of athletic action but not really. In the book, Avery flies to Telluride, Colorado to visit her dad and enter the Snurfer (snowboarding competition) while meeting some "wacky" characters. Even though there's a glossary in the back, I'm pretty sure people don't use the snowboarding lingo as much as Avery does because I don't even understand it. I like Avery because she's all about the environment and cares about animals and because she's the only Korean you'll ever see in all of the series. She doesn't look it but she actually is. But that's the only time you'll see that.

Theodora says

Avery is in the snurfer race. Can she win it?

Ashtyn says

This is also a good BSG book about Avery and she goes and lives with her dad for winter break and she is a god snurfer (its like snowboarding) and she meets a friend that she helps..... I cannot say anymore because I dont want to ruin it for people who want to read it.

Bryanna Davidson says

I LOVE IT!!!!!!!

Avery Liu says

I love this book because the girl's name is Avery just like me and we have a lot in common. We both like winter sports, hot chocolate (well, almost everyone likes hot chocolate), we don't like pop, lots of other things. I loved this book.

Sophia says

i thought it was a wonderful book about friendship and following your dreams

Kayla Crockett says

This was a book given to my daughter Avery for Christmas. I'm trying to stay a bit ahead of the game with her reading so I thought I'd read it quickly before she did. It was okay. I think she'll love it.

Moon says

Well, it makes total sense why Avery doesn't like Kate.

Alexandra says

I really enjoyed Avery's adventure! Can it be that the girl who doesn't like sport (AKA, me) thinks that this might be her favorite Special Adventure novella? Hm... what has this world come to?

Back Cover: Hey, sports fans!

Avery here, comin' at you live from Colorado, home of my dad – and the first ever Telluride Snurfer Snowboarding Competition! With mascot dog Marty at my side, I'm totally psyched to compete. But this trip is getting CRAAZY. And in Crazie Kazie, the all-star boarder who wants to wind as much as I do. The only thing crazier is her cat, Farkle....aka Franken-Cat!

I just might score some coaching tips from a certain celeb. And shout-out to my new friend, Jason – he loves animals, like me. You won't believe the creature he's keeping in his shed...it's almost ready to be released into the wild.

Shred on, Avery

Mine: What a wonderful series for young girls. My only question is how can the parents be so clueless as to your daughter's feelings (it's usually the dad that doesn't get it). Avery's dad is now got a girlfriend and with that comes her daughter Kazie that is the enemy. Kazie seems to have taken Avery's job at the ski shop and is her competition in the Snurfer Snowboarding Competition

Avery also makes friends with Jason the new kid in town that everyone else wants to know about also. Jason is a quiet kid with lots of with lots to hide the most interesting thing is the hawk he is caring for.

Renee says

3.75 As part of the Beacon Street Girls (BSG) Special Adventure series, the story is told from one of the BSG's perspectives - in this case Avery. Avery visits her father in Colorado and is looking forward to snowboarding in the Telluride Snurfer Snowboarding Competition, but learns that her father has a girlfriend, who in turn has a snotty and extremely talented snowboarding daughter. Then Avery meets the new boy in town, Jason and they begin to form a friendship. Competing in snowboarding and for her father's attention start to wear on Avery, but she deals with her problems maturely. This is a fun realistic fiction story and will appeal to snowboarding and animal fans (Jason and Avery have several pets). Snowboarding terms are bolded and then a glossary, pointing to the page where the word was first used, is located at the end of the book. Also included is a quiz, an interview with a hawk, and facts about Colorado.

Refreshing read for all the serious books I now read. I read this series two years ago and finished the books out so far except for this one. Now I've read it and I still remember what I loved about this series before I became infatuated with fantasies.

Ajo says

I thought it was an exciting book and I was very interested.

Lee Jia says

Hey! Are you interested in some snowboarding? Read this super incredible book to find out how this one girl, Avery, of the beacon street girls takes off to Colorado with their group mascot, Marty, on their way in competing in the first-ever Telluride Snurfer Snowboarding Competition! However, This trip is getting crazy! As in crazy Kazie, Avery's dad new girlfriend's daughter and her super scary cat, Farkle. Kazie's also psyched to win this competition! During the trip, Avery meets someone amazing and totally unexpected and made a new friend, Jason. He is keeping a amazing creature in his shed and it is almost ready to be released into the wild. So, if you are interested in finding out who won, what happened in the middle of the story, the creature and even the mystery person.... Then dig out this book and immerse yourself in this snurfer snowboarding!
