Well, Really Mr Twiddle! Enid Blyton

Mr Twiddle is a kind old man who means to do his best, but he is often forgetful, a bit lazy and sometimes very silly. Poor Mrs Twiddle is driven to distraction by his muddles.

This time he goes out for a late night walk with the dog, but ends up taking a goose home instead!

Ken says

Another Blyton childhood favourite, I would read this multiple times!

Mr Twiddle is just so hopelessly silly, he's forgetfulness is so amusing.
He even locks a duck in the dogs kennel!

Saher Riyaz says

i have not yet read the book may i know how do i get to the book

Don Wilton says

Classic Blyton. What else can I say?
