Aw they all graduated! I was really hoping that Pin and Ayane would become a couple. Kind of a disappointment ?

Gaby Assouline says

I'm not sure if it was just me but it felt off. The art was slightly different than her previous books and the story (sorry not sorry) kinda sucked. I felt like even though Sadako has grown tremendously from her shy days, it felt like the author kept falling back on those stereotypes and weaknesses instead of showing how much she has changed. This volume is the one before the final and going to showcase Ayase and Pin's relationship, as they are on the front cover (omg goals!). Yes, they are teacher and students. I didn't like how Ms. Shiina handled that one. Also the graduation ceremony felt rushed and results on the finals. All in all, it's a good read and bittersweet bc it's been a long journey for everyone.

3.5 - We get an acceptable resolution for Pin and Ayane, and the class graduates! Interesting to see some of the cultural differences between a Japanese and an American high school graduation. And Pin's hair at the ceremony is my favorite thing ever! Ready for this story to wrap up in the next edition.

Another good volume.

Ahhhhh Pin y Yane me traian al borde de un colapso aunque bueno su final fue interesante porque en la vida real hubiera pasado. El discurso de Sawako fue muy lindo y la ceremonia en general, también. Los momentos de Kazehaya y Sawako son muy lindos. Y Chizu con Ryu awwwww muy lindos muy lindos.

Kate says

I'm proud of this series for where it went with Yano's story, sad but proud!

Pin, il personaggio maschile più figo di sempre! ? ?

I was an emotional mess for this volume because I thought it was the last volume. Because of this, the first time I read this volume, I was slightly disappointed. I wanted to see our dear, precious students in the future. You can imagine my happiness and horror when I realized that a. this was not the last volume, and b. we had to wait until December for the last volume.

However, I finished my re-reading of the series and read 29 for a second time this week. If it wasn't for Ayane and Pin's part of this volume, it would be a 3-star. Although heartwarming and emotional with the ending of the group's high school career, this volume does not cover a lot story-wise. The most exciting part, and a majority of the volume, is a wrapping up of Ayane and Pin's story, as mentioned above. It was adorable. I love Ayane and Pin.

[And SERIOUSLY WHAT IS UP WITH PIN'S RESPONSE TO AYANE!!! I was so hopeful!! Especially after seeing the front cover!! I ca

DonutKnow says

The feels are real. I didn't want to cry so I may have skipped some bits ?? Sue me for being emotionally constipated ?

I had a bit of a laugh at her speech when she freelanced it to say that she doesn't mind that she was called 'creepy' but at least her speech was authentic to her ?? You do you Sawako!!

I wonder what's in store in the last volume. Probably a look into their futures.

Carol Kokumai says

Só por não ter feito o professor ficar com a aluna, Karuho Shiina já merece todo meu respeito

Bryn (Plus Others) says

Very well done; it is hard to do a slow end but I think Shiina has found the way of it.

Chris says

They finally graduated! Yay!

..was that part on page 79 about Pin being 37 and lonely all about me? I turned 37 two days ago fml bye

Hisgirl85 says

This series is ending with a sweet emotional bang. What a wonderfully kind, positive, and heartwarming series! I may or may not have been crying ridiculously hard with these characters as they're graduating and moving onwards. This feels like the end of Friends or some other sitcom...it's building and I'm not sure I'll ever be ready to say goodbye to these special characters. But I'll keep moving one step forward, excited for the future and cherishing the memories made.
