Wild Lover Natalie Wild

This is the first book of the 'Wild Lover' series, written in the delicious and sensual style of Natalie Wild.

Mia Tennyson hates fishing, but she books a charter trip in an attempt to save her floundering relationship. When her boyfriend dumps her via text as she stands on the dock, even the charter captain's handsome face and chiseled body can't distract her from her heartache. As the day goes on, however, Blaine Daniels' kindness and concern for her wellbeing starts to chip away at her pain. She finds herself making love to him in the boat's tiny cabin, and thinks the breakup may have been a blessing in disguise. Blaine is evasive, however, and Mia can't lose the feeling he's hiding something from her. Mia must decide whether she's willing to risk another heartache on a man who seems likely to disappear over the horizon.

This ebook contains very hot and explicit descriptions of romantic activity. Only mature readers should download this book.

Will Decker says

Cliff Hanger, but then I think the author made that pretty clear up front. Thank you. It's not a bad start to a promising series. The writing style is a bit stilted and the characters are just barely developed. The editing is just passable. All in all, a nice little short story with potential.

Blaine may have kept his true identity away from Mia, but I don't think that is enough to push him away. I can't wait to see where this story leads, because to me they just fit.

Sexy boat captain to being dumped

Mia doesn't know what to do as she stands on the dock waiting for her boyfriend only to be text dumped. Sexy captain Blaine challenges Mia to try fishing, she does even though she's crying and seasickness has set in. Even though she had a rough time at sea she followed her impulse and had to see him again. Blaine is being cagey about himself but he can't deny his attraction, even for the short time they're together. Wonderful humor, great start to the story.

Fishing?

How was Mia to know that her boyfriend would break up with her, after she had planned a fishing trip, to bring them closer? But he did.

She walked down to the docks to get a refund for the fishing boat and meets a handsome man named Blaine. After she breaks down crying over her boyfriend, and throws up while on the boat she leaves and returns home.

She can't seem to get Blaine out of her head, so the next day she returns to the docks. Is this the start of a love affair? Or just Mias fantasy?
