Marie says

Guinea-Bissau

"Environment, they say, is formative of culture."

"Practice comes before theory."

The certainty that the black man is in the process of awakening throughout the world "It had not been easy to convince the peasantry that they had an objective interest in joining the national liberation struggle, when their outbreak was limited to a simple understanding of the difference between the price and value of their produce."

"Island: your mountains and your valleys did not sense the times pass, and stayed in the world of your dreams."

"The old structure of African political life was totally destroyed by Portuguese colonialism."

"Unity is also a means, not an end."

"It is essential for us to achieve the greatest possible unity of the forces of the different classes."

"Islam is able to understand this, to tolerate the culture of others, whereas Catholics want to put a quick finish to all of this."

"Our struggle is based on our culture, because culture is the fruit of history and it is a strength."

"All this might seem very simple, but it is difficult, it is very complex to find the right answer for this."

"A woman has the right to advance, to be taught, to go to school like any other human being, to do any work of which she is capable."

"So long as imperialism is in existence, an independent African state must be a liberation movement in power, or it will not be independent."

Derek Fenner says

Don't sleep on Cabral!

"To have ideology doesn't necessarily mean that you have to define whether you are communist, socialist, or something like this. Ideology is know what you want in your own condition." p.88
