Meagan says

Excellent little collections! All the basic Boynton books! Excellent baby gifts, The beast got them for her baby shower!

Ilean says

I read these books to all three of my children ( now ages 16, 21, and 26). We loved these books, read them over and over so many times. These are classics that need to be in every childs library for reading out loud to from birth to age 4 ( or 5 or older in my childrens case).

Kristen says

I love Sandra Boynton and so do my kids!

---

Kelly says

Newborn babies won't be particularly engaged, but great books for the babbling baby to pre-schooler. The books are clever which is nice for the reader. Sandra Boynton's catalog is voluminous, and nearly all are quite good. (I actually don't care for the A to Z in in this set.)

Jessica Coughlin says

My daughter is obsessed with these books. They are her clear favorites out of her entire collection. Short enough to keep her attention and she loves the pictures.

Cassie says

Sandra Boynton's stories are delightfully silly at any age, and I've loved them from toddlerhood on up!

J Philpot says

Another I love to read with Forrest. They are written so I have them all memorized. We love Moo, Baa, La La La the best. Forrest knows all the sound effects.

Lauren says

The packaging of 4 board books together is a great idea. The stories are all pretty short, so I can usually read all 4 books to my 1 year old son in 1 sitting. He loves when I make all the animal sounds.

Kathleen Baldwin says

Delightful for a read with the little ones. We especially like Moo, Baa, La La La, and Barnyard Dance.
