On a date with his coworker, Jaylin dies and finds himself in a surreal afterlife world where he gets to choose to be reborn over and over. He learns that he must attend an orientation that will in turn prep him for choosing his next reincarnation on Earth. While his guide, Dorian, attempts to counsel him, he fumbles through the shorter lifespans of various earth creatures and learns a little more about life than he thought he did. Torn between completely starting over and staying put in this new realm, Jaylin does his best to avoid the commitment of another human life.

Tonya says

This was defenitly interesting. Didn't really know what to expect but it ended up being much better than I thought. I enjoyed reading the authors depiction of what the afterlife could be like and thier perspective on reincarnation. This book wasn't long but it packed in a well rounded story that ended nicely and wasn't a disapointment.

Katia says

Our past and present lives are paralleled, they intertwine with each other. We create our own hell with our own conscious. The lesson we must learn before we become one with the Divine has to be thought and learned through our actions.
