Dan Gutman understands young reader's humor and has created a fantastic book formula to draw in even the most reluctant of readers. The My Weird School series is perfect for students to practice their reading skills with its repetitive yet hysterical narrative and story lines. But don't mention that part to your kiddos, they might run away in fear they could learn something. A must have collection for any grade school library or classroom!

Meh. I wish the characters didn't say things like 'shut up' and 'I hate you' to each other, but I can see how they appeal to the target age group.

I give this book a 10/10 I say this because it is a very gross story. I say this because the art teacher (Mrs.Hannah) does not have a garbage can in her room. Why this is gross is because everything that is supposed to go in the trash she saves and turns it into art. For example if you were doing a craft and you had scrapes she would save that and turn it into art, she would also save tissues with boogers on it. Buttotherwise it is good

This book would be fun for young children in school because they will be able to relate to having a teacher. It will also keep the children's attention with the crazy things that happen in the story.

Mrs Hannah is art teacher. But Mrs Hannah were dresses made out of pot holders and collects garbage instead of throwing it out. Not only that she can make art out of garbage stuff. She's making A.J be partners with Andrea! A.J thinks this is the worst class ever.

Fun story!

A.J. and his classmates are learning all about art from Ms. Hannah, who tells them art is everywhere. Finger painting, the art museum, and performance art are all part of the class. The class thinks Ms. Hannah is bananas because she never throws anything away, and they are convinced that she's really just a garbage collector. The class has an art contest, but a ruckus caused by A.J. and Andrea may ruin the entire event before it even gets started.

I Really like this book it is a great book for kids to read.the main charters in the book is hannah,aj,andrea,emily,mr.klutz,micheal,rayn.The 1st chapter is about how aj dont like andrea young.he dont like her because she is annoying and she complain about everything and also she thinks she knows everything just because her mother is a famous.MY opinion about Andrea Young is that she is a entelligent person i like her persontily thats my opinion about her.The 2 chapter is aboutwhen the kids where finger painting with ms.hannah in the art room.okay while they was on there way to the art room they saw a lady witha colorful dress that was made out of a washcloths that you was your body with,also had some of these big mittens on her hands.Everybody thougt to thereself ms.hannah look weird.So when she told them to go in the class room.When they went in the class room she told them that it have to be boy girl boy girl just like what we do in our class room when a test is going on.the 3rd chapter is about weird people this chapter i had to read over a few times but now i know what is the summary of it.It is about how a.j think that ms.hannah is weird then ryan said that his mom is weirder then ms.hannah. then micheal made a satement and said then most of these in the world are weird.I learn from this book that you have to treat people how you want to be treated and also learn that some teachers are kind and some are not .Thank You

This is number four in the My Weird School series, but I understood what I was reading without reading the books in order. AJ, the main character, is in second grade. In this installment of the series he has art class with Miss Hannah, an eccentric lady who never throws anything out. I think AJ says things that aren't nice (about school and his classmate Andrea). Overall, this is a pretty funny book and the ending is really sweet.

These are hilarious! We have a Miss Hannah at our school so my kids laughed a little more because they thought about her.

Gail says

Art teacher's story.

I wish these books didn't use "dumbhead" as much as they do. Also wish that A.J. didn't "hate" everything (school, books, Andrea, art).

The kiddo likes these books though so we will be reading a few more I suppose.

Lots of funny moments and good lessons on appreciating art and its wide variety.
