I feel like i preferred this book to the actual shiver trilogy... I guess I just like Cole as a character. I find him more intriguing and funnier than Sam

"I gave so many damns at once that it actually hurt."

You know I'm fracking hooked. Let's not even try and joke about it. Picked up my signed dead tree copy... ready to listen to more hot sex on a stick with the audiobook. I'm all over this. Now about this "damns" thing. I mean we all clearly know Maggie was going for "fucks" and Isabel clearly has shown she is a girl that (kinda, mostly) knows what she wants. Why cut her off at the knees like that? Anyway. I'm still in. Fucks and all.

PS - I don't even feel bad that I only hear minions anytime someone tries to pull off a "ta-da"

Preview, you're making me sad because I am currently not in possession of big enough fortunes to buy this book/series. I try not to be because the smell of unnecessary drama coming from this direction is, quite frankly, overwhelmingly strong.

But, these words! Maggie Stiefvater words! And what, is this curiosity, too?!

Damn you, books. And me. (And money.)
