Secrets of the Old Ladies' Club Nan Tubre

Regina, Donna, Stella, Bethany, and Cicely are lively residents of the exclusive Heritage Memories Retirement Village. They share an enthusiasm for living life to the fullest but their antics soon turn the Village upside down as they live the way they want rather than how they are expected. They each prevail over personal trials and tribulations by traveling, laughing, and leaning on each other. In the process, they form a partnership and business so secret, most of their family members are completely unaware it exists.

Enter Paul Sanders, the mysterious new resident who turns out to be quite a charmer with a history as allusive as it is devastating. His unexpected arrival forces the five best friends along diverse paths filled with deception and betrayal. Their lives are further complicated by the appearance of a woman claiming to be the love child of one of them. The very foundation of The Old Ladies' Club is shaken as decades-old secrets emerge, threatening to either reinforce--or shatter--their world.

Secrets of the Old Ladies' Club shares a poignant story of loyalty, ambition, and passion that explores how far a friendship can be tested before it is destroyed forever.

This was a sweet and enjoyable story. It was not at all what I was expecting it to be given the summary, but I did enjoy it. Lots of loose ends that these older ladies needed to tie up before it was too late. Also, it showed how cathartic coming clean and letting go of regrets can be. The book was funny at times, but overall it was a nice view of how to live life being try to yourself and with no strings attached.

I received a copy of Secrets of the Old Ladies Club by Nan Tubre from a GoodReads Giveaway in exchange for an honest review.

Secrets of the Old Ladies Club follows 5 young at heart friends who live in the Heritage Memories Retirement Village. Regina and Donna, are the mothers of the two men who created the village and their friendship goes back to the time of the Viet Nam War. Next is bold Stella and loyal Bethany, who grew up together in New York. Lastly there is sweet Cicely, the youngest of the group. All financially secure, the women decide they would like to do something to help people, so they create a secret company called the OLC (Old Ladies Club), where they build financially affordable housing for those in need. However this isn't the only secret they keep from others and each other. When Donna's ex-husband moves into the village, their peaceful existence is turned upside down.

Although the synopsis interested me from the moment I entered this giveaway, I was a little worried that I wouldn't be able to relate to the characters in this book. My reason for this is because I am quite a bit younger than the 5 women are. However once I began reading the book, I knew that I wouldn't have any problem at all. I was so entertained from the first page until the last. In fact I couldn't put it down. Labelled as humor, there is much more to this novel than that. I would think it would better fall under the category of contemporary. The pace of the writing was good and the plot never lagged, making it a quick read. This is definitely one that I will read again.

I would recommend this book to anyone who believes in friendship, whether they are young or young at heart.

I enjoyed reading this book. It is not a book that you can read for an hour before bedtime. You will not want to put it down and continue reading into the wee hours of the morning. I cannot wait for another book by Nan Tubre.

Secrets of the Old Ladies Club was a great book! I think as a younger person, we often make the mistake of thinking older folks are somehow different than we are. I loved the way the author gives us a glimpse into the lives of five friends who just happen to be in their "Golden Years" but have the same desires, hopes, wishes and wants we all have. Great storyline and a great read! I am looking forward to more books from Nan Tubre!
