The Thunder of War Dietmar Wehr

The Thunder of War is the first book of a new military SF series, Thunder In The Heavens.

The Tyrell are a race that loves to fight, and they're very good at it. The harder they fight, the better they like it. Whenever they discover another intelligent race, they force them into combat whether they want it or not. When humans are warned of an inevitable confrontation with the Tyrell, they attempt to form a multi-species Alliance, but the challenges are great, and they know it's only a matter of time before a Tyrell fleet of massive ships will arrive in Earth orbit. Cate Harrow and Gort Eagleton are two Aerospace Force officers with the kind of strategic and tactical skills that the Alliance needs to win this war, but before they can even begin to defeat the Tyrell, they must survive the incompetent leadership that threatens complete disaster. Defeating the Tyrell will be far more difficult than the Alliance initially believes unless they can discover their one weakness. This action-packed series has lots of space battles and political intrigues, as well as personal triumphs and tragedies.

Excerpt:

“Flight Ops to Skydiver. You and your squadron have the green light, Commander. Good luck.”

“Thanks, Ops. Skydiver to Squadron. We have a green light. Sound off when you’ve undocked in sequence order. Here we go.” She turned and nodded to her co-pilot who would maneuver the corvette out the half kilometer wide maw of the carrier, Ranger, while she monitored the rest of the squadron. As Skydiver gently pulled away from the docking bay then past the baffles and moved towards the opening, Harrow switched one of her displays to the rear external view, using computer enhancement to compensate for the low level of light inside the main hangar space. Each corvette in the squadron was undocking and maneuvering in a specified sequence in order to avoid collisions.

“Skydiver is clear of Ranger,” said the co-pilot. As the ship began to accelerate, Harrow watched the carrier start to recede into the distance. Just as she began to shift her gaze, she saw a streak of light hit Ranger from below, penetrate up through the interior of the huge hangar and come out the top of the ship.

“FLIGHT OPS! WHAT THE HELL—“ shouted Harrow.

“—BEEN HIT! RANGER’S BEEN HIT!”

Harrow recognized the voice of the Flight Operations Duty Officer.

“OH GOD! BISMARCK REPORTS BEING HIT TOO!”

Harrow thought fast. The Tyrell had obviously detected the four carriers and were firing their long range, faster-than-light kinetic energy projectiles from below. The mission was clearly compromised, and to her way of thinking, getting the carriers to a safe distance was now not only their top priority, it was their only priority.

“SL to Flag!” said Harrow quickly.

“We’re kinda busy right now, Commander!”

Harrow didn't know who was replying, but she did know it wasn't Vice-Admiral LeClair, and that's who she wanted to talk to.

"You tell the Admiral that he needs to order his carriers to jump RIGHT NOW, Goddamit! We're sitting ducks here!" Without waiting for a reply she turned to the co-pilot. "How many of our ships have cleared the Ranger?"

"They're all out! Do we try to dock again?"

"God no! No time for that. We'll have to catch up with her at the rally point if our carriers bug out in time!" She looked at the display that was still showing a now much smaller Ranger.

Gary Wayne says

Good

I liked the characters portrayals. I guess all aliens are dumb in comparison to humans! I reserve full evaluation until I read the second book.

Jimbo says

Great book - A real page turner with great characters and lots of action. I would recommend this book to my friends

Deb Crump says

Fun read

Good fun read , liked the characters plenty of room for expansion of the other races.
Looking forward to the next one.

Bluecobras09 says

Humans finally make first contact and it is peaceful. But the message delivered during the peaceful contact was a warning. That an alien race is coming that lives for war. And when they come, they give you the tools to wage the war and an exact date they will be back to fight it. Now humanity is in a race, for they must win the coming war or be subjugated.

RECOMMENDED: IMAGINATIVE NEW MILITARY SPACE OPERA SERIES

If you have any experience reading Dietmar Wehr, you will expect a good reading experience, and this new series is no exception. Wehr imagines a war-loving sentient race that travels the galaxy seeking worthy opponents to conquer. This scenario leads to sometimes amusing, but always engrossing plotlines as the would-be conquerors subjugate the galaxy, one species at a time.

This alien race experiences an almost-sexual berserker frenzy in battle with a worthy opponent. At best, they can barely control this pleasurable frenzy and they usually don't even attempt to control the berserker enjoyment of battle.
