Reed Hadley would gladly spend her day holed up in her room with her dog, watching horror movies or surfing the internet on her trusty laptop. Too bad she is the daughter of one of the biggest matchmakers in the business.

As soon as Reed started to develop into what scientist dubbed an adolescent, her mom has been sitting her up on dates, which seem to go wrong every time. Reed is done with these dates, and she realizes that the only way to get her mom off her back is to find a boyfriend.

When Reed is partnered with bad boy Parker Hunt on a school project, they can't stand each other. However, Reed and Parker quickly realize they need each other; Reed needs Parker so that her mom will stop with the blind dates, and Parker needs Reed so his jealous ex-girlfriend will leave him alone.

So, this odd pair strikes up a deal. For appearances' sake, they're an item. Behind closed doors, they may fight like children, but Reed and Parker have managed to fool the people they need to.

However, can a fake relationship stay fake forever?

Darci Taylor says

I thought this was an entertaining, light read. I, however, am not a fan of the miscommunication between Reed and Parker. It happens too often in YA books. Like, come on guys, how about talking instead of running away? But I loved the story nonetheless. I want a Parker. Please?

Hadý Gómez says

Light, funny and without drama.

Brynn Rova says

There's so much just breezed over in this story. I like the plot line and the writing is decent, but everything just flies passed without actually taking time to fully capture anything. That alone had me reading without forming any sort of connection to the book.

Sequoia says

One of the better written stories on Wattpad, but I still find that I'm unable to be fully engrossed in the story.

Sia says

ok, i really really liked this book

SPOILER ALERT

and the fact that she wasnt like :"oh, i dont like him, that's impossible!" or "i dont deserve him." or "he doesnt deserve me." but she said "i am in love with him." and that's it. i really liked the fact that the author didnt write flashbacks but from the other pov but wrote the future from the other pov.

i was laughing so hard when he hard-boiled their egg, Benedict XD, and then she thought the egg was naked so she drew some clothes and a face on it XD and when she said to her teacher that Benedict was home with the flu XDDDDDD

SPOILER'S END

SPOILER'S END

so, long story short, it was a erally nice book and everyone should read it.

Idobelieveinfaeries says

Literal perfection

KittyKat says

Actual rating 2.5.

This was a light, cute read that was funny at times. It was cliched, however it was a mindless read that allowed me to just switch my brain off and vegetate and enjoy the awkwardness that teenagers experience. If there's one thing I can recommend to anyone no matter who you are it is COMMUNICATE!!!!!! If you have something to say or someone is trying to talk to you, don't try and put it off listen to what they have to say. Overall, a cute read.

Jemimah says

I am very much surprised to see this book here! Yet at the same time I feel happy haha goodreads is the only website I use to keep track of everything I've read and I'm just literally so glad this is here haha I want to start reading published books again using my reader but I don't exactly know why I haven't gotten around to doing that.

Anywaaaay

I loved this book! I seriously couldn't put my phone down even when we were out. I was reading while walking along the street haha I love Parker and Reed and though I wish there've been more scenes when they were really together, I love that they finally are! So there. hahaha I love this boooooook :) :) :) ❤️❤️❤️

Amanda says

It was good

Vinodini Subaramaniam says

Simple without any drama. It's not cliche or cheesy. Throughout story don't know when Parker and Reece fall for each other!! It's amazingly simple and Reece attitude is captivating!! A Light Story !! XxX

Hannah ? says

I actually enjoyed this book quite a lot. Parker was so cute and was definitely swoon-worthy! And how nice he was to his little sister was so cute.

But Reed admitting to liking Parker to herself was a bit fast to me and so was them admitting their love and getting together as a real couple.

Rose says

Loved it. its a cute n funny book

Eke says

Reed is me. Now I just need to find my Parker. Goddamnit, I don't even want to think how long that's going to take. Man. Loved it.

Sara says

This was so cute and fun! I really liked this book! It made me laugh and smile many times. I liked Reed. I didn't like Parker in the beginning, but I got to like him at some point, especially when it was obvious he was crushing on Reed.

Reed's mother was Hell on Earth! She was hateful and annoying. I wanted to hit her so many, many times! Aaahhrghhhh!

Maya was really childish and kind of selfish and stupid. Not a real best friend if at the first occasion you turn your back at your friend and stab her in the back, even friending with the enemy, aka Triss. Such a b!tch! I mean Maya, but yeah, it will apply to Triss also.

Zephyr was ok. A good friend to Reed.

It's 3.5 stars

kittypebbles says

I didnt read many Wattpad books....but let me tell you

This book has the best of everything

You guys wanna know what they are?Here we go then

- 1)Parker is a player
- 2)He is not your ususal loaded guy with arrogance
- 3)They live on the same street
- 4)This book dosent have all the electric and touchy feels from the start
- 5)Reed is not the regular nerd.She is a dancer
- 6)She knows how to apply make up without a friends help to give her a 180 degree transformation
- 7)Reeds mom dosent approve Parker ATALL!!
- 8)They both have cute lil siblings

I think the above mentioned are enough to atleast give this book a try
