Jeani says

This one was less enjoyable than book one.

Reagan says

The princesses find a lost panda and the lost panda showed them crystals that were stolen from the castle. Then the princesses took the crystals back to the king. The king was so very happy.

Lisa says

For the age range (young elementary), it's pretty cute. The princesses solve a simple mystery and help save an animal (in this case, a baby panda bear). My daughter enjoyed it, and I enjoyed reading it to her, though the story is quite basic and predictable. As my 4-year-old daughter is loving them, there will definitely be more Rescue Princesses in our reading future.

Kathleen Dixon says

The children continue to enjoy this nice little series about princesses who love all the pretty stuff and also are adventurers and rescuers of animals in need. In this book they are also embroiled in a search for four heart-shaped crystals stolen ten years ago from the Kingdom of Onica. And there's a super-cute baby panda.

jacky says

wish there were more pandas and less jewels.

Lana says

I love this book! It is my 2 favourite book in the world!

Kelli says

Not bad. My daughter is five and loves these. They are much better than the rainbow magic fairy books she was hooked on so I'm very glad. I'm not sure I care for the princess lessons in the books, but all the girls are brave and like animals and like being outside. I don't like that they sneak around a lot, but I've editorialized to add while conversations where they get permission from their parents. Other than that, these are pretty good, and not too mindless to read out loud.

Jerusalen says

I love this book! Its my 2 favorite of the series. I didn't think that guy to be the one who stole the crystals. But I kind of thought it would be him when the princesses were under the table. What I am really shocked about is that the star crystals would sing and do that magic. That's just cool:)I give this a crystal 5!!

Jess says

Love this story!

What a fantastic additional to the previous Rescue princess books! I love that the story line follows from one book to the next. Even though each book could be read separately, it's fun to read them in sequence and join the princesses on their adventures.

Anita W says

It was very interesting.

Jasmine Bernard says

SPECTACULAR this series is mainly about 4 princesses rescuing animals. In this book a panda is in trouble with an earl the thief of the heart crystals from the kingdom of Onica the princesses finally found the thief of the heart crystals which was an undiscovered case for 10 years. Truly magical

Aliza Heslop says

I liked the ending

Kate says

I love this book! The Rescue Princesses is my 2nd favorite series. Since I found this book, I wanted to find the rest of this series.

Fernanda Nicole says

Jaminta's grandpa was going to turn 100 year old she wanted to give him a crystal like the one that was stolen 100 years ago. Jaminta's friends were playing and then they went to see the baby panda and it fell of a tree but she wasn't hurt.
